I've tried to make as full a use as possible of the amazing versitility of the piano, the worlds's favorite musical instrument. Thus, you'll find on this recording a touch of classical, a hint of jazz, and a dash of rock, as well as the sounds of country, New Age, gospel, blues, and ballad. What do you call my music? I have no idea, but I sure enjoyed writing it, performing it, and recording it and I hope you do as well.
