He spent most evenings at his neighbors home, who was a member of a musical trio. This was Dannys first exposure to music, and where he discovered his passion for performing the popular musical style called Salsa. Danny performed with various musical groups in the town of Carolina, Puerto Rico where he lived with his mother and his brother. In search of broadening his horizons, Danny decided to move to the city of skyscrapers, New York. In 1986, he met a man named Tito Allen, who introduced him to a band leader, Ray Barretto. This was the beginning of Dannys extensive career in Music. Danny traveled to many different countries to perform and gained invaluable experience from his teacher, Barretto. In 1990, Danny joined a Salsa group called Los Hermanos Moreno with whom he sang for six years. During this time, Danny released several musical hits which lead him to tour many European countries and the Orient. For the next seven years, Danny performed with several different orchestras. In 2002 he decided to move to Orlando Florida and In 2004 Danny met his manager Bart Chico Flax, associated with Bonilla Management. Now his plan to go solo with his own Orchestra materialized and in 2006 he recorded his first CD entitled Danny Sanchez Going Solo with the hit songs Los 70sand Con Sabor Azucar, ElQue Persevera Triunfa . Danny expects to create many more hits in the years to come.
