Domonique brings the sounds and influence from the hot bed of music called "the Bay Area", that's northern CALI. This project, INFECTIOUS is a collection of funky sounds that swing and sway hitting on many genres from R&B, hip hop and jazz. 17 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: It takes practice to become legend. But that's the best way to describe this amazingly talented artist better known as Domonique. He's the complete package, singer, songwriter, musician, producer, and entertainer. With influences that range from Prince and Marvin Gaye to the Doors and Tupac, Domonique works hard to produce his highly sophisticated sound and impressive stage act. With several years of hard work and determination under his belt, his dues have been paid and he is now set to conquer the music industry and take his place among Billboard's top selling artists. With the help of songwriting partner Tony Fargo, Domonique's latest effort "Infectious" is a compelling combination of R&B, jazz and hip-hop music. With songs like the club banger "Secrets" featuring fellow bay-area hip-hop legend E-40 and passionate ballads such as "All I need Iz U" and "Oceanwide" It's clear from the start that this is much more than just an ordinary R&B album by today's standards. It's an album that makes you wanna move, groove and grind and after just one listen, you're hooked making it truly... "Infectious". On stage he's is an explosion of energy. Completely comfortable on stage as he engages his audience with a natural ease. So check out one of northern California's own, "DOMONIQUE". A complete artist of a rare few that eats, sleeps, and thinks music constantly. Check out thejonezzfor details on where and when to see Domonique or to hear even more of Dom's music.
