No pop gloss to these songs; the themes are unmistakably country. Unlike most CDs that offer one or two great songs, each song on this CD stands on its on, reflecting an artistic integrity straight from the heart with no compromise. GayLynn's gift is most evident to those who love the truth and shoot straight from the hip. Proof positive that some of the best and most unique music isn't found mainstream but stands profoundly independent in a class of its own. No grammies, no big name producers, no phonies, just plain old homegrown music by someone who is just like you. A progeny of the working class who has spent a lifetime singing her heart out in rowdy roadhouses, smoky honky tonks or maybe to just one single person somewhere who just needed to hear "that" song. If you truly want to hear one of country music's most distinctive and exceptional singer/songwriters then add this CD to your collection. It's a real gem!
