The electronic music from the VOO planet: Experimental, Lounge and House music mixed with digital sounds, real instruments and effects. This is the long awaited debut Album by Intergalactic VOO. 15 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: House, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: INTERGALACTIC VOO rise in October 2005 from an idea by dj&producer Mark Hollywood, guitarist Frank Rocca and bassist Vincent Valente. Mark, Frank and Vincent, joined by the same passion, decide to realize a music project with the definite and hard purpose to blend the sounds of the real musical instruments with the machines sounds, they start working and they shut themselves into their studio for many months. On their way they meet many musicians among whom vocalist Mr. Bruzz, who collaborates with Intergalactic VOO singing on two songs like "Down keep your voice" and "Temptations RMX (Club version)". Songs by Intergalactic Voo vary from Electronica to House, from Lounge to Dub. Mark, Frank and Vincent always try to create their songs with a touch of irony playing upon many themes and different music kinds. The guiding principle of their work is the maniacal care of sounds and the wide use of Fx made to measure. Their long-awaited debut album "Welcome to the VOO planet" is finally out in february 2007!
