The career of E. James Kalal is exceptional. His multifaceted talent flows into many dimensions of music. James Kalal has a global following of appreciative aficionados who enjoy and love his many diverse recordings. Mel Bay Publishing of St. Louis, Missouri, world renowned for high-tech digital innovations in publishing (video, CD ROM, etc.) commissioned Kalal as an author to write companion scores to his recordings for international distribution. To date, Kalal has authorship of the following books: A Renaissance Christmas (Original Title: Christmas Music for the Guitar from the 16th 17th Centuries), Melodies of Spain for Acoustic Guitar, and Yuletide Gathering. He has serenaded listeners in romantic respites along the loose path of the fabled Orient Express. His melodies of the Occidental journey evokes images ranging from whirling dervishes of Istanbul to the Romantic Road of Germany. He has enchanted listeners in the English Cotswolds (Lygon Arms, Broadway, UK) the charming Goldener Hirsch setting for the film Sound of Music/Salzburg, Austria; the legendary Harry's/Venice, Italy; the Ancient San Francisco Parador/Granada, Spain. James Kalal's performing venue's in France included three contrasting regions: the Rhone-Alps: L' Abbaye de Talloires, a 9th century monastery (now hotel) in the French historic village of Talloires on Lac d'Annecy; the Cote d' Azur the quaint fishing village of Giens on the Mediterranean Sea; Provence at Saint Remy, Hotel Domaine De

Valmouriani. On the 25th of February, James Kalal will perform at the Menendez Festival in St. Augustine, Florida, attended by Juan Carlos and his wife Sofia, the King and Queen of Spain. Sylvia Vidova Performances with the Cleveland Orchestra, world-class celebrity artists and at the First World Guitar Congress Sylvia was born and raised in Slovakia (former Czechoslovakia). Her early studies were on classical guitar. She has studied with Vladimir Tomcanyi and Alois Mensik. Sylvia has earned a performance diploma in classical guitar from the State Conservatory of Music in Bratislava, Slovakia in 1996. In 1997, she was awarded a full scholarship to study jazz at Tri-C (Cleveland, Ohio) under the direction of Lee Bush and Ernie Krivda. Sylvia Vidova has performed with the Cleveland Orchestra on guitar and banjo, also with the Cleveland Chamber Symphony, Cleveland Jazz Orchestra, world renowned bassist Rufus Reid and the famous Pop singer/recording artist Lou Rawls. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Cleveland State University completing a jazz syllabus under the tutelage of veteran guitarist Robert W. Fraser. In 2004, Sylvia attended the First World Guitar Congress in Baltimore, Maryland, where she was given the distinction of performing on stage with the legendary jazz guitarist Howard Alden. Venues for 2006 have included a special concert performance at the Cloister, Sea Island, Georgia on Easter Sunday, April 16th. Sylvia performed works of renaissance and baroque composers on the baroque lute for this program. She and Jim will be performing a Renaissance Christmas concert at the Jekyll Island Club on the 21st of December, and at the Cloister on Christmas Eve for the Yule Log Ceremony. Sylvia and Jim have released a new CD titled "Guitar Greats In Concert" featuring some of this beautiful music. Sylvia has accepted a commission to arrange and perform: "For Unto Us A Child Is Born" from Handel's Messiah and other favorites for a new James Kalal Christmas 2006 release. Currently, Jim Sylvia are working on a special CD vignette entitled, "Afternoon Tea At The Greenbrier." This includes a specially arranged recording of the Pachelbel "Canon."
