Smart Beatlesque Pop with Echoes of Elvis Costello and Robyn Hitchcock. 14 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Singer Jimm Mciver (pronounced McKeever) has been writing pop songs and performing them for more than a decade with bands and, most recently, as a solo artist. Mciver's music, both intelligent and accessible, blends wry and whimsical lyrics with catchy melodies. His most recent material explores the influence of British heroes Lennon/McCartney, Difford/Tilbrook, Elvis Costello and Robyn Hitchcock. Mciver's debut album "Polaroid Angel" was released in June 2002 on Seattle independent label Ptarmigan Records. "Polaroid Angel" was produced and recorded by Conrad Uno -- best known for The Presidents of the United States of America's platinum-selling debut. Mciver is performing around the Northwest in support of the new release.
