"In the language of Cole Porter: oo-la-la-la. C'est magnifique. That burst of Gallic joie describes the ebullience of "A Swell Party R.S.V.P. Cole Porter," - truly fabulous." --Stephen Holden, THE NEW YORK TIMES. 14 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Musicals/Broadway, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: KT Sullivan and Mark Nadler are multi-award winning entertainers who have appeared separately and together at Carnegie Hall with the New York Pops Orchestra under the baton of Skitch Henderson, as well as many of the world's greatest concert halls, cabarets and theaters. They have both played multiple lead roles on Broadway, been soloists with major symphonies around the world and have appeared many times on Television and Radio. They are staples of the New York City cabaret scene and appear at the Algonquin annually. Loren Schoenberg, who plays the saxophone on this recording, was the musical director for the late Bobbie Short and also played tenor sax for Sylvia Syms, as well as many other legends. The liner notes for this recording are by Robert Kimball, who is the artistic adviser to the Cole Porter Musical and Literary Property Trusts. People who are interested in Barbara Cook should consider this download.
