Based in South Florida, shes setting out to accomplish her goal of becoming one of the most influential female recording artists of all time. She is a prolific and gifted writer and performer. Using rap music as a catalyst, Miss Wright plans to bridge the gap between hip-hop alternative rock music. Unlike the fading trend of mash-ups, she effortlessly rides her tracks with a delicate balance of soul, style and lyrical swagger. Her style is rooted in traditional hip-hop but she lives with a rock star mentality, attitude and appearance. Shes a strong positive minded young black woman, so youll find no dumb-it-down sex kitten rhymes here. Prepare to be moved as Miss Wright explodes with ultra-high energy performances, mind-blowing vocal passion and truly provocative deliverance. She wants to be heard. wants to be heard. Miss Wright has recorded and released a CD, The Jump Off, on an independent label in 2006. She most recently inked a new deal with artist management firm, Powerblast Worldwide, to handle her personal business management needs. Now, with strong management in place, she can fully focus on creating new material for her impending performance dates and supporting commercial album release. She is currently gearing up for the release of her six song EP, titled Hip-Rock. It features the commercial singles, Wild Child, an ultra sexy electronic dance groove and Love is Pain, which is a deep, soulful and infectious song about the heartaches of relationships. The additional street single will be an explosive track called, You Cant Be Me. All tracks are produced and mixed by Miamis own Gino Black.
