Pop/Rock 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Nowhere Slow's Sophomore Album "2 Weeks" was recorded in December 2003 at Sound Investment Studios in Scranton, PA. The band enlisted Chris Bennett, a young talented producer, Joe Wegleski, an experienced engineer, and Tom Borthwick, a renowned mastering engineer, to put together an album that shows the bands true sound. The result is an album the band is truly proud of. "2 Weeks" is an album full of songs about life, relationships, and celebration. The band explored new styles of music, incorporating electric guitars, a grand piano, and different vocal production styles. The album is also the first time the band has recorded with bassist Will Clauss, who joined the band after the release of "Look Up and Jam". The band set out to accomplish a more up beat, fun album without compromising lyrical integrity. "2 Weeks" will make you dance, make you think, make you cry, and most of all, it will make you want to sing along. But don't take anyones word for it.
