Acoustic folk/pop; Carmel Valley girl reveals her journey starting from a mid-life crisis and has a fairy tale ending 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: 60's Pop Details: Rose's voice will wrap around you like a warm blanket. Listening to this CD you can easily picture a movie. From a vacation on the "Sea of Cortez" to her "Middle of Life" songs in which her own words pounded inside of her, and she left the family and the farm to pursue her musical career in L.A. Going to open mics for a year, got her gigs at Molly Malones and Genghis Cohen in Hollywood and The Baked Potato in Studio City. Mr. Seducer/Producer entered the scene and he became obsessed with her. Things went sideways, and unwantingly she knew it was time to get out of L.A. and get back to her roots for awhile, "Simple Girl". Once home, the songs poured out of her and she recorded the CD. Revealing her feelings of real life situations about a friend's cocaine addiction, "Fallen Angel", and "Old Man", a favorite among her fans with the catchy chorus, "she'd come back if he'd quit drinking, he'd quit drinking if she'd come back. Then surprisingly after attending a wedding reception she didn't care to attend, she met the man of her dreams, and songs like "Driving Home" and "God knows I Love You" were born. Rose is a born entertainer and loves to make people laugh. If you see her live, be prepared for a real down to earth night full of laughter in between songs. She's off the cuff funny and bounces right back into her songs with much affection. People who are interested in Stevie Nicks Joan Baez Carole King should consider this download.
