We are a female fronted band with acoustic rock and powerpop roots 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: California Pop Details: The Fated continue to spread their unique blend of acoustic rock and power pop to audiences all over California . Jessica Porter of American Idol fame fronts The Fated, while never looking back. She has been pushing as a singer since the ripe age of 5, doing talent shows, recitals, county fairs, and using any and every opportunity to showcase her powerful voice. Her meeting with Matt Kaner in February of 2003 proved to be a life-altering encounter. The duo found themselves with a strong musical chemistry that has since led to the creation of a repertoire of well over 30 songs. The formation of a full band in October of 2003 opened new doors for the group of musicians. In January of 2004 the band was offered a spot on Westlake Audio's Artist Development part of their website in which two songs were showcased. The Fated have played legendary venues such as The Roxy Theatre, The Whisky A-Go-Go, The Knitting Factory, The Hotel Cafe, 14 Below, SOhO , Rock's, and many others. In March of 2004, Into Relality, a self-produced and self-released 11-track album was released. It was the culmination of over a month and a half of hard work in Oxygen Recording in Montecito , California . The album was engineered, mixed, and mastered by Justin Fox who is now the front man in the Santa Barbara band Tripdaxon. The Fated continue to self-produce their music while they showcase new material that is set to be on their forthcoming sophomore release.
