Details: Al Brasil, consisting of twelve Philadelphia musicians spanning three generations, was born out of a passion for Brazilian music. Accompanied by stunningly costumed dancers, the band draws audiences into a "tornado of rhythm and sound" (Philadelphia City Paper) an irresistible, full body-and-soul experience. Whether parading down Broad Street, opening for gala events or awards ceremonies at Philadelphia's top venues, or captivating hundreds of revelers at local nightspots, Al Brasil never fails to enchant. The bands repertoire is rooted in African influenced rhythms (samba batucada, samba reggae, pagode, maracat, ijex), and others, from many different regions of Brazil. Al Brasil Press Clips "a spectacle of joy and sensuality...a show of samba and joy which lifted the audience off the ground....Brazilian culture penetrating and infecting Philadelphia ."
