Dales body of work includes: (1966-1968) Composer, arranger and conductor for the Bobby Bryant Jazz Band. One of the many pieces included a 3 movement composition by Dale, which was performed at the Monterey Jazz Festival in 1968. (1969) commissioned by Hugh Masakella to compose for his Jazz Quartet and orchestra. Dale composed a three movement work based on traditional African folk songs for full symphonic orchestra and jazz quartet, which was performed by the Cincinnati Symphony under the direction of Eric Kunzel. (1969 1971) Musical director for Jazz Singer Esther Phillips. (1974 1975) Musical director for Latin Jazz Artist Willie Bobo (1975) Dale worked on several projects as a string arranger for Wayne Henderson (of the Crusaders) who was producing for the jazz label Blue Note. The most well known was the Ronnie Laws album Fever. (1973 1975) Dale had his own 23 piece jazz band which he composed and conducted all the music for. The band consisted of some of the greatest players in Los Angeles at the time such as: Dave Grusin, Mike Lang, Mark Anthony, Nick Ceroli, Johnny Garrnon, Bobby Bryant, Jay Daversa, Dalton Smith, Buddy Childers, Pete Christlieb, Ernie Watts, Don Mensa, Bill Perkins, Tom Scott, George Bohanan, and Frank Rossilino, to name a few.* (1994) Dale returned to music with a new blues band that played periodically at the House of Blues on the Sunset Strip in Hollywood. (1997 1999) Dale formed a partnership with John Larkin, known as the artist Scatman John. They built a top of the line studio called Scatland Studios. John past away in December 1999 at 57 years old. Dales first album Skatland Sketches (just released on CD Baby) is dedicated to his dear friend. (2001 2003) Dale met a Latin singer Nidia Torres and together the created a form of Latin music some of which will be on his next album called a Latin Touch. Scheduled to be finished and on CD Baby this summer 2008. Personal Statement: In 1976, I lost the desire to create music. I knew how to create music but I didnt know how to live. In 1994, due to a course of events and experiences, many of which I call miracles, I came back into music. My purpose now is to create beautiful music both instrumentally and vocally that people of all ages and backgrounds will enjoy. I love the term world music; I hope my music reaches people all over the world. * Many of these great musicians and artist have past away. Their spirits live on in me and I am sure many others. People who are interested in Henry Mancini should consider this download.
