Jayden's new self-produced CD "Stripped Down To The Real Me" is nothing short of amazing and is filled with radio ready acoustic tunes that are sure to catapult Jayden to the forefront of the Pop/Adult Contemporary scene. Not only did Jayden write each song for "Stripped Down To The Real Me" in a matter of days, but the self-motivated artist played all the instruments himself, and even engineered, produced, mixed and mastered the album himself. "Stripped Down To The Real Me" is proof positive that Jayden is not only a gifted musician and vocalist, but one of the best artists ever at harnessing the pain from one's soul and turning it into powerful words of hope and courage with moments of creative genius. This is one of the best unplugged pop albums in years!
