Torch bairers of an ansient traditional craft that unites generations in spirit. Fresh interpretations of traditional tunes, such as Cigarrettes, Ot Azoi, Zemer Atik, Eli Eli, Donna Donna, among others, captures the heart of a new generation of fans. The average age for the members of the band is 30, they are based in Los Angeles, California from various diferent parts of the world. Bandleader and Clarinet player Gustavo Bulgach was born and raised in Buenos Aires, Argentina learning Klezmer music from his family at a young age, adds the original and soulful sound of the traditional Klezmer Clarinet, that "laughing-Crying Yiddische soul". Many great things have been said about Gustavo's playing, but we think that the music speaks for itself... Just give us a try! In 2004, KLEZMER JUICE worked in the NEW LINE CINEMA'S new comedy movie called THE WEDDING CRASHERS starring OWEN WILSON, VINCE VAUGHN AND CHRISTOPHER WALKEN. The movie is scheduled to be released in the Spring of 2005. Their version of the HAVA NAGILA is to be included in the soundtrack CD. We are also the SIMON WHIESENTHAL MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE house band and we have been participating in many many comunity events. Recently, the HOLLYWOOD BOWL'S SUMMER SOUNDS PROGRAM Booked Klezmer Juice to participate in a long week series at the bowl next summer to teach and entertain the audience playing and teaching the roots and evolution of the Klezmer Music. The event is already sold out! If you're thinking about having a Klezmer Band for your party or event, just go with the real deal, the best of the best... you know better!
