This record is hot... Definitely on fire... L.King is the new Hip hop messiah. 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: L.king aka E.L.K. has had a love for Hip-Hop before cats were break dancing on cardboard, so he's been rhyming for along time.He grew up in Brooklyn home of some of the best MCs and where some would say is the true Mecca of Hip-Hop. Believe me when I say he is not the exception, He is the best. What makes him stand alone, is that he is alone in an industry of overly saturated booty shaking MCs that make music with no true content. His life, his dreams these are some of the same things we all share. In L'S music, he starts by making the tracks sound like more then just a beat but a story by its self. Could he make the song cry, can he bring his listener with him, not to hear but to absorb the music? Turn the lights out and listen to (I Gave U) number12 on the CD and feel what he felt the day his girl left him. In (Show Me Mercy) number 3 on the CD,he spoke for every one going through something that may seem, or may be uncontrollable at some time or another in their lives. Like (Show Me Mercy) most of his music brings a melodic visualization of the story he's telling. All the production and song writing is done by L, with no samples or ghost writing. This is something he prides himself on, because I know theres a lot of producers who can't creatively come up with a song or beat of their own without sampling a song that has already gone platinum. And the same thing goes for those MCs that cant write their own material. L started his own label inspired by people like Master P., and Cash Money. They just showed him you can't wait for something to happen you just need to make it happen yourself and now L's putting every thing he has, his money, time, and heart in to it. L. King becoming the next big thing is inevitable, now its just a matter of time. He will be the one who brings substance back to Hip-Hop.
