This album is energy bursting, captivating, and a sure ear grabber; passionate east coast style with a little southern twist..... 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Just as art imitates life, so do LYFE Don Mekka's past life experiences. The nature of his music evolves from his immersion in the urban hip-hop culture. LYFE was born and raised in the Washington, DC area, and has experienced many ups and downs throughout his years. His music echoes the various experiences that motivate the emotions of pain, faith, love, and freedom. The most influential artist in the music industry that has effected LYFE is the late Tupac Shakur. Shakur influenced LYFE's understanding of the essence of hip-hop. Tupac Shakur's style and charisma has shown LYFE that the world craves for leaders, and he believes that he can be that leader in this industry. The Taste of DC, Georgia Avenue Day, Howard University's Homecoming, and the Black Family Reunion on the National Mall are just a few of the many events in which LYFE Don Mekka has been featured in the Washington, DC area. For several weeks, LYFE has had the pleasure of opening up for the legendary Chuck Brown at The Classics Night Club. LYFE has also been a regular feature at clubs and venues inside and outside of the DC area, such as The State of the Union, Republic Gardens, Hang Time, Colony South in Clinton, MD, The Spot Night Club, The Auqua Lounge, The Ascot, Lee's Auditorium in Alexandria, Virginia and Expose TV in Wilmington, Delaware. LYFE Don Mekka's goal is for the world to hear and know his music, and to touch those who have felt untouchable. LYFE DON MEKKA, the name..... LYFE, represents the existence of everyday trials and tribulations DON, represents power that he has as a leader MEKKA, represents the place that he yearns for, which is Hip-Hop!!!
