No-nonsense, hard-driving dance music from Hector Lavoe's legendary pianist. Debut CD featuring some of the biggest names in Latin Music bringing a clever mixture of Latin Jazz Salsa. 10 MP3 Songs LATIN: Latin Jazz, LATIN: Salsa Details: Press Reviews: A new concept CD from a very talented, latino flavored pianist - Larry Harlow (Fania All-Star, Latin Music Pioneer) Pulpos piano is the proverbial icing on the cake, the pies de resistance. His melodic yet right on clave solos are a joy to listen to and his montunos are the stuff that dreams are made of, the very essence of our music. The montuno section is the hypnotic groove that keeps it all tightly knit together while everything else is happening around it, and it is also the dough that makes this music as tasty as HOT BREAD. Chico Alvarez (WBAI, 99.5FM, NYC) "Pulpos Hot Bread" es una produccion que recurre al ingrediente que est frecuentemente ausente en la industria del jazz latino y la salsa moderna: El Sabor... En esta produccion la excelencia es colectiva y se funde para brindarnos un compendio de jazz latino y salsa brava, para el odo, para la pista y para el coleccionista. Esta primera produccion como solista confirma que regres a sus races ya que con su nuevo trabajo musical convierte la nostalgia de los buenos discos en esperanza que ya esta disponible en la tienda de discos de su preferencia - Robert Padilla (Musicologist, Latin Music Authority) Biography: Pulpo's resume and experience have made him one of the fastest rising pianists of his generation. Born in New York City on December 28, 1953, Pulpo began his musical journey at the young age of 14. After experimenting with various instruments, Pulpo ultimately joined his dear friend Oscar Hernandez with piano lessons. Under the tutelage of piano luminary Charlie Palmieri, Pulpo quickly learned the essential skills for success in the competitive industry. As a teenager, Pulpo was playing at the epicenter of Salsa's Golden Age while recording performing with some of the biggest bands in the business including Rafi Val's La Diferente, Pete "Conde" Rodriguez, and Kako's All Stars. In 1975, Pulpo received his big break and was approached by FANIA All-Star vocalist Hector Lavoe to be his pianist and musical director. For 16 years, Pulpo recorded and served with Lavoe while they toured throughout the world. As musical director, Pulpo integrated a second trumpet to the orchestra which proved to add an extra dimension to the already talented band. As Pulpo's popularity increased, he played and musically directed a multitude of recordings throughout the salsa circuit. In addition, Pulpo is credited for playing with all three of the "Big 3"; The Tito Puente Orchestra, The Tito Rodriguez Orchestra, and the Machito Orchestra. Aside from his work with Lavoe, Pulpo credits his experience with the Big 3, as "the break that really took my playing to the next level." In addition, Pulpo is highly regarded as a teacher of piano and musical theory in which he taught for over 16 years at Johnny Coln's East Harlem Music School in New York City. Pulpo's popularity in all these different circles extends far beyond his musical ability. His warm natured personality and charming sense of humor is described as infectious making him one of the industry's most pleasant pianists to work with. In addition to his own band, Pulpo continues to play and tour with the Big 3 Palladium Orchestra. Most recently, Pulpo has become the musical director of Orquesta De La Gente (ODLG), a group dedicated to the memory of Hector Lavoe in which they perform original tunes from the vocalist's repertoire. As musical director for ODLG and various other projects, Pulpo is widely considered one of the latin industry's most accomplished pianists.
