The original street sweeper with street evangelism; powerful spiritual rap 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: R-Swift, a native New Yorker, now resides in Philadelphia, is an avid poet and lyricist. Although he began rapping when he was 11 years old, God inspired him to start his ministry at the age of 17 in 1998. Initially, he only rapped within the walls of his church - The Oasis of Praise Ministries Church, Philadelphia PA. However, the Lord has seen fit to expand his boundaries and enlarge his territory. At age 15, R-Swift was a member of the Philadelphia Boys Choir Men's Choral, an award recipient of the Concerned Black Men Inc., and a featured performer at the William Ross Scholarship Banquet. Currently, Swift is actively involved with the Youth Study Center in Philadelphia, a detention center for youth offenders, where he ministers the Gospel every second Sunday. He attributes his bold lyrics and strong messages to the unction of the Holy Spirit and the influence of his former Pastor and Founder of The Oasis of Praise Ministries, the late Reid Prettyman. Pastor Reid (as he was affectionately called) never minced words and shot straight from the hip - he too was a bold soldier and General for the Lord. R-Swift gives all Glory to God, who is the Author and the Finisher of his faith. He is a faithful member of his church and actively serves as a teacher and mentor to the youth. Through lyrical evangelism, teaching and preaching, he is fulfilling the vision that God has given him - to tell the untold and reach the un-reached. To rebuild ancient ruins, to raise up age old foundations, to be a repairer of broken walls, and restorer of the streets; in accordance to Isaiah 58:12.
