His mother, who is an Evangelist at the Evangelical Reform Missionary Baptist Church, made sure he was spiritually sound. His father, who sadly passed in 1999, was his root in music. He was a musical genius, who accompanied musical great George Clinton. He also sang in numerous bands. The piano and congas were just two of the instruments that he mastered. Romel received his first exposure at the age of 7, with the Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church choir. His talents were not limited to singing. Like his father, he was also a percussionist and pianist. Romel knows that every good and perfect gift comes from God.. When he opened his mouth to sing, his angelic voice stirred the inner souls of the parishioners. Romel began to sing at different church functions. Romel came to realize his fathers influence in his life and, at the age of 9, he began to play the piano. Even at such a young age, he was able to play the piano by ear; having never received formal lessons (He could hear a song and virtually play it exactly how it sounded). Realizing his talent, at the age of 11, he was enrolled in the Newark School of Arts, where he began to develop and understand music theory. The education in vocal arranging and voice training were part of his studies that nourished him into the artist he is today. His harmonious chords along with the melodious vocals have since been his trademarks. He has developed into an up and coming R&B entertainer whose roots go back to the Church. Romel has graced the stage with his presence as an opening act for many of the music worlds most famous acts. The inspiration for the music that he writes comes from deep within. The spirituality of this profound writer/ singer can be expressed in every piece of material written. If asked how he feels about music, Romel would quickly respond, Music is My Life Today, with his magnificent, God given talent, Romel is striving to change the way music makes the body feel through his lyrics that are filled with emotion. This young artist is set to make waves in the music industry, once his musical wisdom romances the musical public.
