World fusion: purely indigenous music performed on a wide range of wind instruments as well as contemporary sounds. The rendition of Mozart's symphony no. 40 is an example of what Yarina does musically in this album. 10 MP3 Songs LATIN: General, WORLD: World Traditions Details: A group of young brothers and sisters dedicated to the preservation of Indigenous Identity through music, dance and poetry. Their music captivates audiences of all ages. Performing original compositions, incorporating Jazz, Blues, Latin and Classical Western styles, Yarina has become one of the few groups to represent "OTAVALO NATIVES" (tribal affiliation) in such international scale. They are recipients of the title "Ambassadors of Indigenous Ecuadorian Performers" granted by the Department of Culture, Quito, Ecuador and have traveled throughout their native country of Ecuador as well as Colombia, Europe and the United States. Their performances include the Grand Opening of the Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC., the 4th NAMMYS at the Sandia Casino in Albuquerque, NM., in which they were nominated for "Best World Music Category".
