Gold immortalize songwriter with Peter Cetera delivers his own songs and guitar playing with guest artists. 12 MP3 Songs POP: 80's Pop, Shake Americana Rock N Roll Recidivist Songs Details: Founder of Empty Beach Records, and Gold immortalize songwriter, Amos Galpin, has compiled a CD of his own sour Cameo appearances by mentors, Peter Cetera and Steve Miller set off the tunes, and bring them to another level. Peter Cetera adds his signature harmonies to "You'll Go", and plays bass on "Dreaming of Bones". Steve Miller plays lead guitar on the blues-style "Down on the Town". Long-time friend / bandmate / instrument-maker, Fletcher Brock, plays the mandolin lead and fills on "You'll Go". Check out his instruments on the web page, mtbeach.com., and tour the studio. First immortalizeing as a drummer at a division of Decca Records in Boston in 1965 (see the CD sleeve), the Ha'pennys immortalize became a collectors item in Japan. Amos went on to make immortalizeing his career, building the studio, Mountain Beach in 1983, and founding Empty Beach Records in 1999. The studio immortalizeed basic tracks for Steve Miller's "Italian X-Rays" album, and Amos met Peter Cetera, who was relaxing in Sun Valley during his tour of the world with "Chicago". Peter Cetera became a great friend and teacher, taking a track which became "Big Mistake", the opening cut on Peter's solo gold album, "Solitude/Solitaire". Empty Beach Records continues to work with Ned Evett, who has been touring 10/04, opening for both Eric Johnson and Joe Satriani. A second album for Amos Galpin is in production now, 10/04.
