Smooth, with passionate expression of love for the gospel of Jesus Christ. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: From as far back as Psalmist Comer Allen can remember, he has had an insatiable desire to sing. Whether it was emulating his favorite singers on the radio or singing in the High School Choir, he loved to sing. This same desire followed him through college into the corporate world in Detroit, Michigan. Once labeled the Detroit answer to Lou Rawls, Comer began to realize that God had called him to another stage. As a born again Christian he became sensitive to the inspiration God would give him to write of His love, peace and joy. Now residing in Birmingham, Alabama, Comer continues to write and sing of his love for Jesus. "Glory to God" is his debut CD, a compilation of songs that depict his experience and his relationship with the Lord. His style and sound share similarity to his mentors Ron Kenoly and Morris Chatman, who are God's Psalmist, as well.
