Pop rock in the vein of Keane, Coldplay, Crowded House, etc. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: David Fagin is the founder/gtrst/vocalist for indie icon's, The Rosenbergs. Search the Internet for info on The Rosenbergs and you'll come across hundreds of articles summarizing a history of bold career moves. One of which was teaming up with legendary progressive rock master, Robert Fripp. Through Fripp's UK based label, DGM, The Rosenbergs began paving the way for artists to begin partnering with labels, thus giving them a share in the ownership of their masters and better control of their financial futures. A few months later, while the rest of the music industry was waging war against Napster, The Rosenbergs, ahead of their time, took another controversial step by teaming with the infamous file-sharing service for tour sponsorship and a "buy one, get one free" promotion for their sophomore release Mission: You. David was one of the earliest outspoken supporters of file sharing because it represented the public's attitude toward corporations' monopolizing of the airwaves. Davids music can be heard on numerous television shows airing on FOX, CBS, NBC, WB, BRAVO, MTV, and ESPN. Odds are you've heard his songs while flying American Airlines, shopping at The Gap, or watching one of the many prime-time teenie soaps. He currently has five songs in the popular DVD rental, Mr. Fix It, including an unreleased version of "Birds of a Feather." He has made numerous co-hosting appearances on XM radio with former Smithereens front man, Pat Dinizio, and was asked by Gene Simmons of Kiss to appear on the Howard Stern Show to discuss the future of the music business. After his first appearance on Dennis Miller Live, Dennis personally asked David to co-produce future panels. The Rosenbergs have 3 tracks off their latest release, "Department Store Girl," on Playboy: The Mansion, Playboys first video game for XBOX, Play Station, PC, which has sold over 600,000 copies to date. David is also a character in the game itself, and the band performed twice at the Mansion to kick off the game's release. Pushing Up Daisies will be featured in National Lampoon's The Trouble With Frank; starring Jon Bon Jovi, Cary Elwes, David Faustino, and Estella Warren. The band recently appeared for five consecutive nights on Last Call W/ Carson Daly, and has shared the stage with everyone from No Doubt and Stone Temple Pilots to Duncan Sheik, The Strokes, and Duran Duran. David is currently working on his first solo record and is going broke. In his spare time he works with The Muppets on Sesame Street. David is a frequent contributor to Billboard Magazine, USA Today, The Hollywood Reporter, and Starpolish.com. Since 1999, he has been active in the politics of the music business and testified at the C.A.R.P. hearings on Capitol Hill alongside Alanis Morissette. He has lectured on the business of music at Harvard Law School, Vanderbilt University, Emory Law, UCLA, and NYU, and regularly speaks on industry panels across the country. Vive' La Revolucion!
