Emerald Doyle's luminous emerald-green eyes have the effect of spotlights. She can be described as a mixture of Tori Amos and Alanis Morissette, with a little Kate Bush thrown in for good measure." - The Annex Gleaner Emerald Doyle Biography (French biographie will follow): Your first moment with Emerald reveals her sparkling green eyes and in them, her joie de vie. A minute later, listening to this multi-talented Franco-Ontarian lady you are rapt. As a writer, Emerald writes from her own life experiences in which the result is a form of contemporary pop music with a unique style all her own. Her influences include: Ben Folds, Kate Bush, and Tori Amos to name a few. Emerald Doyle's shows create the atmosphere of a good heart felt house party with a touch of French cabaret for good measure. She attempts to combine her music with entertaining stories about her life and interpretations of them. Emerald has launched her new demo Duality/Dualit featuring 4 original songs in English and then translated into French for a total of 8 songs. Her demo has opened avenues for interviews on television such as Panorama (TFO), radio CHOC FM with Gabriel Osson and featured in the newspaper Metropolitain and IExpress with more to come! Emerald is entering her 4th year as one of the featured artist at the Relay for Life for the Canadian Cancer Society in Barrie Ontario. Shes also been a featured artist for International Womens Day 2007, organized by Oasis Centre des Femmes to share her song Integrity with the community. Throughout the year she has been playing French soires such as Nuit Blanche, Festivit Boral , Rencontre en Chanson and Franco-Fte as well as numerous English open jams and private functions throughout the greater city of Toronto. Emerald graduated with her BFA in classical piano from York University. She is now at a place in her career where her experience, talent and training are beginning to gel and she is now well on her way.
