Details: In August 2005 my husband of 25 years, Stephen Foster, died accidentally. He was sleepwalking. We shared everything in life. We wrote songs together and created a library of eco-songs. We founded the Artist Response Team (ART) and recorded a series of CDs with youth choirs. Now, heres the Magic On Our Tongues CD. The abrupt nature of Stephens death in 2005 forced me to express... make some sense and beauty out of a tragedy, and pay homage to a great person. Here are some songs I wrote, and collected, in tribute to him. During her professional career, Holly has shared the stage with Stan Rogers, Herbie Hancock, Dan Hill, Paul Horn, Bruce Cockburn, Sarah McLachlan, Paul Hyde, Doug Bennett, David Sinclair, Fred Penner, Connie Kaldor, Mae Moore, The Arrogant Worms, Ian Tyson and many more. Since the 1980s Holly has performed at major folk and childrens festivals across Canada, and in cities around the world. She has taken part in many radio and television productions, and has recorded a diverse catalogue of CDs, the latest being Magic On Our Tongues.
