This all-original recording speaks to the "Persistent Soul" in all of us, seeking answers to our challenges and yearning to find purpose in "This One Life". 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, POP: Folky Pop Details: Jeff has been performing for most of his adult life, both as a solo artist and in two of Denver's most popular a cappella groups, The Diners and Cool Shooz, a group he joined in 1996. As a member of these groups he has opened for the likes of Ray Charles, Marvin Hamlisch, Pete Fountain, Kevin Pollack, The Persuasions, Firefall and The Bobs, and sung for thousands of music lovers nationwide at festivals, concerts, nightclubs, and competitions. The Diners and Cool Shooz have made numerous appearances on radio and TV, and sung the U.S. and Canadian national anthems at Denver Nuggets, Colorado Rockies, and Colorado Avalanche games as well as many other professional and amateur sporting events. Cool Shooz released its own CD in 2002. When not singing a cappella, Jeff refines his skills as an acoustic guitar/harmonica player and songwriter. In addition to performing with his own band Cut to the Chase in area clubs, he does solo shows in clubs, churches, and retirement centers. In 1993 he released Boogie Woogie Boogeyman, a recording of children's music, and in 1998 released this all-original CD, This One Life.
