Europe's leading saxophone ensemble with rhythm section. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, URBAN/R&B: Funk Details: Fat and Funky Jazz UK Twelve saxophones from Soprano to Bass, combined with a funky rhythm section and Andy Scott's roaring charts, SaxAssault gets rave reviews whenever it plays live. Featuring an exceptional line up of sax players and rhythm section, this group exudes energy and excitement! "I don't know how many saxophonists it takes to change a lightbulb, but it takes twelve plus rhythm section to perform the pieces written by Andy Scott for his unique 'Sax Assault'. The excellent results are to be heard on 'Bang!'. This will be a must for sax devotees and not just because of the group's unprecedented line-up. It's quite an experience to hear the full richness of the textures which Andy Scott draws out of the ensemble. The steaming three tenor chase on 'Time Please' gets locked into the sort of high energy groove which always goes down well, but I've found myself returning to 'Eclipse', a much gentler piece which created some particularly pensive moments." Jazz UK magazine - 'Making Tracks' Musicians - Andy Scott, Tim Redpath, Iain Ballamy, Jim Muirhead, Andy Schofield, Rob Buckland, Martin Slattery, Iain Dixon, Mike Hall, John Helliwell, Andy Morel, Chris Caldwell, Mike Austin, Nikki Iles, Steve Williams, Steve Gilbert. Recorded live at Band on the Wall, Manchester on 18 July 1996. Andy Scott is an extremely versatile saxophonist, performing contemporary music, jazz, funk and salsa, and free improvisations. His performing work centres around the Apollo Saxophone Quartet, SaxAssault, Hassell-Scott Duo as well as solo tenor saxophone projects. Andy is also a respected composer who apart from being commissioned by leading performers writes for today's young musicians, and gives composition improvisation workshops/masterclasses in schools, universities and music conservatories. He is a Tutor of Saxophone at the Royal Northern College of Music and Saxophone Consultant at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama. Andy Scott is a Selmer Paris
