A piano rock resurrection, six mini-epics filled with catchy melodies and tight grooves: The Radio Knights are a new school power pop band that your boyfriend isn't ashamed of listening to. 6 MP3 Songs POP: Pop/Rock, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: "The Radio Knights kick it up a few notches. This piano-based rock band with killer hooks and a radio driven sound are destined to become famous alongside the likes of Snow Patrol, The Fray and Coldplay." - Bodog Battle Review The Radio Knights are happening! Featuring Brian Allison on bass, Nicholai Baxter on guitar/vocals, Matt Dahan on lead vocals/piano and Greg Settino on drums/percussion, TRK officially came to be in the fall of 2005. Residing in their home base of Boston, MA they have performed and entertained at venues throughout New England. Their foundation is built upon the songwriting contributions of Matt and Nicholai; however, the true character of The Radio Knights music comes through with each members interpretation of the songs. Whether its Greg laying down a deep pocket groove, Brian pushing with his solid pulse, Nicholais scintillating guitar sounds or Matts belt and ivory touch, there is always something more to be heard when these fine musicians come together. While paying tribute to popular musics greatest heroes, The Knights have forged a distinct sound and personality. Live and in the studio, The Radio Knights push the envelope of pop music, fusing together their collective influences to create a rich, memorable sound. Underneath The Radio Knights catchy hooks and head nodding rhythms is a message of hope and unity. The moody lyrics found within each driving track speak to the hearts and minds of everyone who is willing to listen. The songs are all about bringing people together from all walks of life around the lightening rod that is music. These ideas drive them to write and perform and make them a band that is surging forward in the Bay States' rock scene. They are The Radio Knights, and they are sending their signal out! People who are interested in Billy Joel Jimmy Eat World The Fray should consider this download.
