this record is the 'definitive' statement of pop for the entire decade 18 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: A VERY special, limited edition rarities release from The Rooks! "From The Shelves Of Soundscape Studio" is named after the mid-town Manhattan studio where the wealth of this beloved band's material was recorded in the early to mid-90s. This compilation of early Rooks material (1990-1996) features strikingly different versions and alternate takes of cherished Rooks favorites such as "Reasons," "Better Start Right Now" and "Steeplechase." These unique recordings allow the listener to be the proverbial fly-on-the-wall if you will, as note after note reveals how these much loved Rooks songs came to life. It's an entirely new way to experience your favorite Rooks songs and rediscover them from a cool and inviting angle. With engaging liner notes by longtime Rooks fan and historian Julia Hartt, this CD is a must have for both collectors and Rooks fans alike!
