Lullabies sung from a sunken pirate ship by a drunk pixie 4 MP3 Songs in this album (13:29) ! Related styles: POP: Piano, FOLK: Folk Pop People who are interested in Leonard Cohen Regina Spektor Jenny Lewis should consider this download. Details: A sexy librarian with a killer shoe collection, a pixie pianista with Chopin nocturnes up her sleeve, a singer of lullabies sprung from a sunken pirate ship Pam Shaffer is an LA native with a taste for the subterranean. As a child, she often listened to an eclectic mix of musicals, classical tunes, folk music and the requisite teen pop of the 80s. Likely the only kid to wear her great-aunts costume jewelry to elementary school, Pam has always been a bit unusual. Her music plays out like a well-written novel and given her love for the diarist Anais Nin, it comes as no surprise that her songs are often decorated with literary references and antiquated phrases. Pam has been compared to Regina Spektor, the Dresden Dolls, Fiona Apple, Joni Mitchell and Tori Amos. She can often be seen around LA playing shows with her musical accomplices. Catch her at one of her intimate shows, give her a hug and tell her a story. Most importantly buy her songs and leave her a review!
