

Mp3 Adam Solomon - Roots Rhythms (magoma Asili)

DOWNLOAD HERE

This multitalented musician is a 2005 Juno Award Winner who established his career playing lead guitar and singing with some of Kenya's most popular bands and musicians. 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Traditions, WORLD: African- Central Details: ADAM SOLOMON: This multitalented musician is a 2005 Juno Award Winner, and 2007 Juno Award Nominee, he established his career playing lead guitar and singing with some of Kenya's most popular bands and musicians. After he arrived in Canada, he helped to form the AfroNubians band with the late great Tarig Abubakar. He later formed his own band, Tikisa, releasing an award-winning CD, Safari, which earned them two TAMA (Toronto African Music Awards) wins. Since then, he has also released a solo CD, Rocket Express II: African Renaissance Blues . In the spring of 2006, Adam Solomon Tikisa released their latest CD, Mti wa Maisha (Tree of Life), a joyful celebration of the rich and varied rhythms of East and Central Africa. In March 2007 he released the CD "Roots Rhythms". The Roots Rhythms Album is in Homage to the Roots Music and the Coastal Rhythms of Mwambao (Mombasa Coast). Roots Rhythms is  (True Acoustics!!). This Album will make you ask your self, "What's next?" It will make you want more, and more, and more Ngoma!! in "Swahili", or The Drum!! you will feel it in your heart, the Roots Rhythms beat Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts for the support. In 2004, Adam collaborated with a group of pan-African musicians on the CBC-produced African Guitar Summit , which led to the 2005 Juno Award for Best World Music Album of the Year. Later that year, African Guitar Summit performed at the Live 8 Concert at Park Place in Barrie. Adam is a composer and facile multi-instrumentalist, and has become a valuable contributor to cultural education through music and storytelling in schools, libraries and workshops. Retaining his roots in traditional music, Adam's compositions embrace a wide variety of African rhythms, from soukous, highlife and reggae to samba, bossanova and rhumba. The effortless manner with which he controls the guitar so that it sings with him exemplifies the talent of this East African native. Adam Solomon is a current member of the Toronto Musicians Association, OCFF, CARAS and SOCAN. Please see our website, adamsolomon.ca, for full band bios, booking info, upcoming performances, musicology, and photos.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

MP3 In Color - In Color \(the Lamp Album\)