Details: Hailed as a Childrens musical star (National Post) and Canadas greatest eco-troubadour for young people (Mississauga Living Arts Centre), Chris McKhool is one of Canadas hottest childrens musicians. Chris has been touring across Canada with his childrens concerts for ten years, reaching almost 1 million children, and has appeared on Mr. Dressup, YTVs Treehouse, TVOntarios Crawlpace and the CBC. A champion of environmental issues, Chris won a 2005 Green Toronto Award of Excellence and was a finalist for the Environment Canada Action Award for his work in schools and communities across Canada with his CD and concert Earth, Seas Air. He has also won a Parents Choice Award in the U.S. for his CD of the same name, produced by Ken Whiteley (Raffi). He has been the recipient of Canada Council, Ontario Arts Council, Toronto Arts Council, FACTOR and PromoFact Awards. In 2005 Chris released his childrens CD, Celebrate! Holidays of the Global Village. Inspired by travels across Canada and around the world, Celebrate! is a groundbreaking collaboration with musicians from diverse cultures. It features songs about holidays from across the globe that are celebrated here in Canada, including Bodhi Day (Buddhist), Carnival (Quebec), Chanukah, Chinese New Year, Christmas, Diwali, Eid, Indigenous traditions, Kwanzaa (African-American), Ramadan and Winter Solstice. Chris has toured throughout Canada including Baffin Island and has appeared at the Ottawa, Vancouver, Thunder Bay and London International Childrens Festivals. He has also performed in the U.S, England, Cuba, Guatemala and in Tibetan schools across the Indian Himalayas. With FiddleFire! Chris brings his love of violin to young audiences. Recorded in 2008, this CD features guest performances from some of Canadas finest musicians including Ken Chris Whiteley, Sultans of String, Anne Lederman, George Gao, Rick Lazar, Roman Borys (from The Gryphon Trio), Ernie Tollar and more. FiddleFire! has been performed live at festivals and schools across Canada, including Toronto Harbourfronts Cushion Concert series, the Distillery Jazz Festival, and was the headliner for Torontos First Night at the Skydome/Rogers Centre. Thanks to Toronto Arts Council for their support in creating new works. Thanks to FACTOR for their support recording FiddleFire! We acknowledge the financial support of Canada's private radio broadcasters as well as the Government of Canada through the Canada Music Fund for this project. Many have tried but none have come as close to capturing what it means to truly celebrate multiculturalism as Chris McKhool. The Toronto singer-songwriter epitomizes what many Canadians have come to love about this country. - Deanne Fisher, City Parent "I was impressed by his musical virtuosity and personal appeal...His songs succeed!" - Ernie Coombs, (Mr. Dressup) Chris McKhool and the boys were fantastic!
