Details: Review By TheMusicAppraisal.com Face First - Face First (EP) FACE*FIRST, a four-piece punk rock band from New York bring you their trilling 6 track self-titled EP that's ready to blow the roof off your home. When I first heard this band, I was truly amazed and knew they had potential in them. This independent band deserves a lot of airplay and you'll know why after listening to this album. FACE*FIRST consists of Lead vocalist and guitarist Chris Allen, lead guitarist and backup vocalist Joe Anastasi, bass guitarist and backup vocalist Brian Cohen and last but not least drummer and backup vocalist Steve Montemarano. The EP kicks off with a high energetic track entitled "Crazy". The track kicks off with an killer intro and good guitar riffs. The best part of the song has to be the chorus, very catchy to the ears and worth a listen over and over. This has to be my personal favorite of the entire EP to say the least. I love these types of songs especially this one as the girl is driving the guy insane, and heck, girls are headaches sometimes, and they delivered the message in this song. The track lasts all of 3:09, too bad it doesn't last longer, I wouldn't mind. If the band really wants to, I would love for this song to be their single once they get picked up, and I have a feeling it won't be long. The backing vocals on this song, and the entire album are just amazing, I can't wait for another album, maybe a full length, who knows... Another track worth mentioning would be "Saturday Night", a hard edge driven track and another catchy chorus to add at that. The riffs in this track are perfect for this type of song. Then we have "You Make Me Sick", and if you listen to it, you'll notice a continuing pattern from "Crazy", with the same girl in this story, the only difference?, a new song. In all, FACE*FIRST know how to please their fans by producing music that a lot of the young listeners can enjoy. Lately, all these independent bands have been surprising me with their releases and damn, can't say anything bad about this band, they have it going on! For more info: FaceFirstnyc.com What listeners on the web are saying about FACE*FIRST: The Groove Heroes... A great energetic pop band driven by strong male vocals that jump in your face with great lyrics. Very clean and original approach... The band is VERY strong, backing this vocalist with powerful supportive lines and harmonies. This is something that most bands don't seem to get. They're not simply turning up the volume to get this power. They're combining forces to create the almighty groove. That's what powers these super heroes... They're the Groove Heroes. Great Infectious Work. - ajak Port Orchard, Washington Energetic Performance... Good sounds and full power energy This band give us another pos-Green day generation, Kind of "Young forever" attitude, I like it! -Avi_Studio Tel Aviv, Israel Energy in your face...

Driving song with a fun to listen to feel. Good production and engineering. The mix is as close to perfect as you can get. Catchy chorus. Bridge with its sudo-reggae feel is compelling; this is a radio song all the way. -EliThomas Tonasket, Washington 5 friggin stars! Cool...this song is defiantly better then most of the stuff I've reviewed. I really like the chorus. Screw 4 stars I'm giving you 5. A job very well done.
-HBTmusic Layton, Utah Upbeat offbeats introduce upfront rock love song... Cool intro, cool everything!
The sound is near top notch! Solid beats, booming positive bass line with deceiving choppy guitar riffs that bounce off each other into insanity. Cool stereo application of guitars on mix! Together they sound like one! Nice vocal ideas from start to finish! If you like Cracker check these guys out! - Cultureversy Amarillo, Texas Radio Ready... I like the way this song doesn't waste any time getting started. The rhythm section is really tight. The guitars are right on the money ... the singer delivers the lyrics with great conviction. The bridge was very hip. It reminded me of old Joe Jackson. Overall, this is a pop-radio friendly rock song. - papaearwig Los Angeles, California
