Hyperbubble take your favorite songs from Airbrushed Alibis (that's every song by the way), then fire up the reverb, tape delay, and master blaster bass riffs to deliver a dubbed up, tripped out monster mix. 14 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno-Dub, POP: New Wave Details: THIS LIMITED EDITION CD HAS SOLD OUT...HOWEVER IT IS NOW AVAILABLE FROM YOUR FAVORITE DIGITAL DOWNLOAD SITES! Jess and Jeff have remixed their last album and released it as a free download for a limited period. Its not the usual dance remix affair though, its in a dub stylee. I initially thought it might be some Caribbean reggae-type crossover, but its not, thankfully. What the duo have done is virtually shortened all the tracks, given them nonsense names and slowed the pace right down. The songs are nowhere near as frenetic as they were but the sound of the songs is still virtually the same albeit heavily remixed in places, some still very much up tempo (just not as much as previously). You still hear most of the sound palette used originally and some newer additions, but the main emphasis seems to be on the vocals. Not sure if Jess has redone any of the main vocal tracks, but the vocals are certainly much more prominent in the mix than before, layered over a more solid bass backing. As with the original album, the strength of the group, and the reason why this album works as well as it does, is down to the sound design. In some places it sounds virtually the same, in others a bit different but theres still quite a lot going on. - Synthpop.net People who are interested in XTC Dub Syndicate Lee "Scratch" Perry should consider this download.
