Positive, uplifting folk/pop. "...Bruce Cockburn has a dream about Jim Croce at the door while listening to James Taylor imitating Don Henley playing a Paul Simon song at a Randy Newman tribute show." 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: Political Details: Nominated for the San Diego Music Awards thrice now: Once back in 1997 in the Best Adult Alternative Album category for his first Betterworld Records CD, Little Suns, and in 2001 and 2002's Best Acoustic Artist category, Joe Rathburn's music defies categorization. The press has had this to say about Little Suns: "Joe Rathburn's music is hard to pigeon-hole... he's just really, really good." - Jim Hoehn of the Milwaukee Journal. "FOUR STARS" (out of five) - C.C. Federspiel of Oakland Michigan's, The Oakland Press. "Joe Rathburn is definitely a man of sensibility. His latest album, Little Suns, truly shines." - Tracy Page in San Diego's SLAMM Magazine. "Little Suns... a thoroughly enjoyable listen." - John D'Agostino award winning music journalist (LA Times, Musician Magazine, San Diego Reader) in Taylor Guitar's Wood Steel Magazine. "...Joe Rathburn sings modest tunes about ordinary people, but the care and craft he devotes to his Everyguy (and Everygal) songs give each little story a big warm heart." - Karla Peterson, The San Diego Union/Tribune. "Joe, I personally like your music. What I'm especially drawn to is the heart in it." - Tom Kimmel, singer/songwriter (covered by Linda Ronstadt, Joe Cocker, Maura O'Connell, The Stray Cats, to name a few). "...a really wonderful CD... sounds fantastic, looks fantastic..." - Deborah-Liv Johnson, Mojave Sun records recording artist.
