WORLD: World Fusion, WORLD: World Beat

Details: Josef Levitis is a virtuoso guitar player who is equally passionate about his music and his life. He is unusually versatile as far as styles and genres are concerned (in the course of his musical career he has played from jazz to metal to top 40). His favorite genres are flamenco and neoclassical. Kaif is a sensual mix of flamenco, Gypsy jazz and Middle Eastern music. The sound of Kaif is a unique combination of Gypsy guitar (Josef Levitis), flamenco piano (Lena Potapova, a classically trained pianist born in Moscow, Russia) and percussion (Brian Riordan, very talented percussionist trained in a variety of styles, including Afro-Cuban rhythms that Brian studied in Havana).
