Angelo If you're yearning for that classic house vibe but fear that your Ellis D vinyl is one spin away from disintegration, old skooler Junito Perez and his cohorts in the Junito Perez Project have something for you! The uptown maestro (Jackson Heights, Queens!) has just put the finishing touches on the update of his 2001 track "DON'T WANT TO BE ALONE (I'M WAITING BY THE PHONE)" (FIERCE-O-RAMA RECORDINGS). Kelly V's sassy delivery strikes a nice balance between R&B suaveness, pop accessibility and gospel belting. "DON'T WANT TO BE ALONE"S new retread will be included on COMMUNICATION, The Junito Perez Project's upcoming full length cd, due in the coming months. Billboard Magazine Dance singles Reviews By Larry Flick Junito Perez project/I.M.T. Featuring Kelly V. "I Don't Want To Be Alone" Kelly exudes all the drama this pensive deep-houser requires. She is bolstered by a dark and intense groove that seems custom made for underground consumption. Several mixes are included and each is heavier than the nest. Be sure to check out the new mix of the previously available " The Devil Made Me Buy This Dress" on the flipside. Contact (347-489-5652) Junito Perez Project/I.M. T. featuring Kelly V. "I Don't Want to Be Alone" Another American contender to note is a big underground hit that's starting to spread down the happy house highway via enthusiastic club jock word-of-mouth. It's called "I Don't Want to Be Alone" and it's by I.M.T., the troop behind the classic gay raver "The Devil Made Me Buy This Dress". The new release is much more accessible, thanks to a slick production with lots of hooks, a real DIVA vocal, and a lively choral punch line delivered by Earth Kitt. This 126 b.p.m. beauty, on NY based Miss Girl Records (347-489-5652) is a left field surprise that's right on the money.
