

Mp3 Linda Kosut - Life Is But A Dream

DOWNLOAD HERE

The common thread in this collection of songs from folk-rock to jazz standards, from Randy Newman to Dave Frishberg to Rogers Hart, is Linda's styling, phrasing and emotional connection to the lyrics. A pleasurable and listenable CD. 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Cabaret, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: SELECTED AS ONE OF THE TOP CABARET CDs of 2003 - "Linda Kosut's LIFE IS BUT A DREAM - the lady is incredible, the CD a gem!" --- Stu Hamstra, CabaretHotlineOnline.com ***** Linda Kosut moved to the San Francisco Bay Area over 15 years ago from her native New York City where she began her cabaret career at the former Jan Wallman's in the Village, among other cabaret venues. Often compared to a "lush chardonnay with mouth-filling flavors," Linda is a stylish, moving and entertaining performer. She has performed in many of San Francisco's cabaret/jazz venues including the reknowned Empire Plush Room, the Cosmopolitan Cafe, Zingari at the Donatello hotel, Cafe de la Presse, and is currently in residence at San Francisco's legendary room, the Purple Onion. She has also appeared in Los Angeles at The Gardenia, and in Palm Springs, California. ***** "It's so satisfying to perform with someone who is so strong both as a musician and as a performer. Our listeners really felt entertained ... very satisfying for everyone involved, including me." - Ken Muir, Jazz Pianist, San Francisco ***** She is a co-founder and member of the cabaret vocal trio The Kitchenettes, with whom she has also performed at COPIA: The American Center for Wine, Food The Arts in Napa, Calif., the Larkspur Caf Theatre, as well as appearing in Italy where they performed at the National Festival of Comic Songs Songwriters to rave reviews. The Kitchenettes first CD "Dining at the Banquet" is also available. Linda is a 1990 Fellow of the Cabaret Symposium of the Eugene O'Neill Theater Center.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: