Details: Lui Attanasi music breakout comes with his debut album, "Like a Chin Chin Chin" in 2009. "After several years of work in hispanic soap operas and film in Miami, I realized that I wanted to dedicate and pursue further my passion for music and that is why I cam to L.A.". Lui's family has been involved with music since he was a kid, even though they did not pursue it professionally, he grew up listening his father and mother singing and playing the guitar at university events or just at parties and family reunions. "My Mom and father's passion for music is very deep. I was inspired by them and by my sister who was always listening to the latest pop singers from all over the world. I was assimilating all this musical influence from the 70's, 80's and 90's and my passion for music increased while I share the love for music with my family and while I was silently looking at them". "I was a very shy kid and with an amazing love for art and performance inside". "I think it is very amazing to be here. It has been an amazing journey with tears, love, laugh,happiness, struggles and challenges. But I will never ever give up. Just like my Dad once told me...." Lui
