Related styles: CLASSICAL: Contemporary, NEW AGE: Relaxation People who are interested in Astor Piazzolla James Galway David Russell should consider this download. Details: Lisa Schroeder and Michael Nigro join their musical talents, creating an experience of pure elegance and classical artistry. Their vision is to reach a non-classical audience, inspire the classical listener, and to touch just one life with a "noteworthy" performance. Noteworthy's interest in South American Music can be heard throughout their extensive flute and guitar repertoire. This past summer, the duo toured Nevada and Colorado playing concert venues, television programs, and radio shows. The continuing 2008/2009 schedule includes performances in California, Florida, Georgia, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Arizona, New Mexico, and Indiana. Their debut CD, entitled Between Guitar and Flute is scheduled for release in February 2009. Lisa and Michael are both on faculty at Vanguard University of Southern California. During the course of their concerts, in an informal manner, Michael and Lisa often include commentary, information, and anecdotes about the composers and pieces they are performing. Their striking ability to communicate with their audience makes "Noteworthy" performances seem more like an intimate gathering of friends than a recital for strangers. They have received rave reviews for their concerts across the country, Noteworthy's concert was a highlight of our concert season. Michael and Lisa play as if they have performed together forever with joy, superb musicianship and impressive ensemble. From their first moments on stage through the last piece, Michael and Lisa kept the audience absorbed with their expressive playing and engaging commentary. This was a first-rate concert experience.
