lyrical ministry (gospel rap) 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Born and raised in the Bronx N.Y. Bro. Glen Jenkins aka t.i.m. J grew up in the Church of God of Prophecy @ 85 E 165th St. He came to know Christ in 1991. Eight years later in 1999, he wrote his first poem and started doing songwriting for other folks as well. In 2000, t.i.m. J wrote his first complete rap song, as the Lord started to truly birth a ministry inside of him. He hooked up with Bro. Dwayne Handfield in 2003 and the vision of Shiloh Music Ministries to work towards an album. Since then he has been blessed to minister at the McDonald's Gospelfest (where he was a finalist in 2004), Bermuda, Canada, and various local churches in N.Y. The acronym t.i.m. J stands for 'til I meet Jesus'. A name God has instilled in him, for until then he shall do what God says do, go where God says go, and say what God says say. On June 25th, 2005 t.i.m. J released his self titled debut album 'Til I Meet Jesus' on Shiloh Music Ministries. He has already begun to nurture younger musical ministers like, R.I.C. (Righteous In Christ) and Crystal Clear. When all is said and done, he hopes to have a million souls behind him when he gets to the gates of glory that have been reached for Christ.
