Out of a love for dark, danceable house music, musicians Eddie Arcadia and C.S. Rynne began writing, recording, and performing original music with the intent of taking over the radio airwaves, nightclubs, and concert venues. A new-80's sound coupled with house beats, original music, and Eddie Arcadia's smooth, soulful voice have given Voz Frontera a truly unique sound and stage presence, which they have played to packed dance clubs and concert audiences. "DESIRE" is the band's first major release highlighting 10 singles from the group's diverse repertoire. "Desire", the title track, is a romantic house groove that fuses dark romanticism with cutting-edge synth twists. Also included are the unreleased singles "Somebody To Love" and "Secretos De Amor", a remix of "You Can Love Me Any Way" produced in Hollywood, and rock-inspired "Glitter".
