The second CD from this accomplished duo. 12 songs that explore the fragile side of love, life and loss. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: They first performed on Christmas Eve 2001, and found in each other a shared spirit for traditional, uncontrived acoustic music. Bruce Lawson and Jen Carter-Kelly have evolved into Crossing North, a duo that respects the past while creating their own unmistakable spare, sweet sound. Built on a framework of close, two-part harmony, Crossing North performs at the intersection of acoustic country, folk and bluegrass. They have been performing their original brand of music as well as timeless classics by artists like Patsy Cline and The Louvin Brothers. Their debut CD, "Late Night Songs", was released in 2004 and features Crossing North originals with guest performances by Eric Gibson of The Gibson Brothers (courtesy Sugar Hill Records), Mike Barber, dobro extraordinaire Junior Barber, Adirondack legend Roy Hurd and mandolinist Skip Smithson. With Jens powerful and engaging vocals, along with Bruces complimentary guitar stylings, the duo has become a favorite in their region, including upstate New York, Burlington, VT and Montreal. CD #2 "Fragile", featuring a whole batch of Crossing North originals, was released in November 2006. "We really enjoyed your show...it was perfect, both of your voices were amazing...it was as good as any great performance I've ever seen...I was really blown away by everything." Bruce Carlin, Producer of The Mayor's Cup Festival (mayorscup.com). From the first time I saw them I preached that they can make it. I was a true believer right from the start. I felt that Jen and Bruce needed nothing but their considerable talent, some hard work, and a break. They've accomplished the first two and now await the third." David Vinopal, Editor/Writer
