

Mp3 Dana Carlile - A Lullaby For Innocence

DOWNLOAD HERE

Exotic and beautiful French salon music for piano reminiscent of Chopin, Satie, Faure and Michel Legrand for altering mood and states of mind. Cures insomnia too. 17 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Solo Piano Compositions by Dana Carlile Performed by Pianist Rhonda Ringering For the story of Dana's grandfather Ferdinand Sorenson and his sons Hubert, Richard, Mayo and Quinten (Pete) Sorenson click on then link to Preludes for Silence and Darkness to your left. Pianist Rhonda Ringering has crafted a career as a pianist, a writer and an instructor. She has released two prior CDs, Oregon Impressions: the Original Piano Music of Dave Deason and Made in America, a collection of American music. She is an active chamber music and solo performer for venues as diverse as Multnomah County Library, Central Oregon Symphony, The Old Church, Linfield College, Broderick Gallery Series, and the Ernest Bloch Music Festival. She has performed live on KBPS 89.9 FM. She has appeared several times with Oregon Chamber Players, and frequently performs cabaret with tenor Ron Harman. She is a staff accompanist and an adjunct professor of piano at Linfield College, piano instructor for Young Musician's and Artist's Camp, and she maintains a private piano studio in Forest Grove, Oregon. A BIT ABOUT DANA Composer Dana Carlile is an amateur pianist who had several years of piano instruction as a child from his mother Dorothy. He took up the piano again on his own after hearing Istvan Nadas play the complete keyboard works of J. S. Bach at Reed College in 1979. Audio Editing, Mastering and Graphic Layout (including misspelling) by Dana Carlile The CD is dedicated to Dana's uncle Quiten Sorenson Many thanks to The Multnomah County Library Portland, Oregon

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: