Dicap has an ever-evolving, original flow sure to captivate audiences. After nine years of development, Dicap is a confident twenty-three year old vocalist, often outshining the performers he's opened for: John Legend, Musiq Soul Child, and The Clipse. On the Hippies on the Move Tour, Dicap used guerrilla sales tactics with label mates Phase 1 and Delano Macsoure to deliver fresh sounds to newly acquired fans...positive responses have come from as far away as Germany. His album Travelin is a commute from freestyle cyphers, notebooks, and lighter-lit discussions with bumping tracks sporting a gritty, yet soulful feel, you'll think Primo, Jay Dee, and Prince Paul. "Welcome" opens Travelin' with a mellow groove accented by strings bright as a sunrise. Title track " Travelin' " aligns audiences with Dicap's visions: thoughts of big brother's cameras capturing the current state of hip-hop. "Down Under" serves as testament to his crew's intellect and lyrical prowess, chartering VA collective The Underground Nation. In "Anonymous Souls," Dicap extends a hand to those unspoken for in, " this nation built on flooded images and broken monuments with fabricated stories that turn into broken promises." Dicap the Emcee, the cypher continues with a sho-shot ready to rock spots near you. Soul Students thats us thats the movement....
