A Blend of smooth Jazz, R&B, Hiphop, Carribbean/latin music 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: Born in Jersey City, New Jersey, Eric Parker began his love for music at the tender age of 3 years. He actually made beat bop sounds before he could master the english language. He continued this unique form all the way through high school with his classmates paying him to do their favorite tune. He entered into many showcases during his high school years, and was recognized in 1999 by an entertainment company who decided to further develope his stage presentation. His love for music prompted him to perfect a skill at the keyboard. Coupled with his ability to do natural vocal base and drum lines, he incoporated this into his keyboarding style, and has come up with a unique sound of smooth jazz, R&B, hip-hop, and pop that appeals to all ages and gender. His role models are Earth, Wind, Fire, Lionel Richie/Commodores, Prince, just to name a few. He has produced these compilations: "Purple Mountain", "Legacy", "HipHopcrisy", and "Extended Play" He is currently working on a new project entitled "Something". Look for the rich vocal style on this CD coming in the spring 2004.
