Songs that serve as a map to indie rock heaven, where we hear music so gorgeous, raw, and sexy we wonder why we don't hear songs like them anywhere else; a cool, guarded voice, in its restraint, elevates the songs to a subtle, cerebral ecstasy. Details: "Well I look pretty good for a Sunday morning, and I feel pretty good for having nothing..." so goes the song "10 Million," from the album "Beg From Me", by Gina Villalobos, summing up the attitude that permeates this great cd. Gina's songs serve as a map to indie rock heaven, where we hear music so gorgeous, raw, and sexy we wonder why we don't hear songs like them anywhere else. *Gina has shared the stage with such artists as the Breeders, Frank Black, and Mary Lou Lord *Tour begins January 2003 *Various tracks featured in TV and film ...and the music? She's dirty, she's sweet and she's your girl, with pop rocks in her cheek, folk beneath her fingernails and a cowboy hat on top. Gina is a veritable charm factory, chatting freely with the audience, coaxing toothachy melodies out of her balky acoustic, singing smart stoner lyrics in a disarmingly straight scratchy voice."
