Kevin's musical styles and goals Kevin's musical style is mostly R B with a little jazz, mixed with some

Hip Hop. He has some like Jahiem, style like Joe, with a touch of Neo Soul, but carries his own unique sound. As with all artists, Kevin has set goals for himself and his music. He wishes to create enjoyable music for people to listen to for many years to come. Kevin's public appearances: Kevin's performed at

Rookies strike Zone in Manteca, several weddings, Kimbals Carnival in Oakland, Fat cats, Sweet Jimmies in Oakland, Contra Costa Fairgrounds at a Costco Christmas party. Kevin's biographical Information

Born and raised in San Jose singing since the age of four, Kevin's biggest influences growing up were his parents. Both parents are singers and Kevin's mother, Jackie, is an Evangelist. Frank, Kevin's father also grew up singing. Kevin started playing the drums at age 5 and at 13 he started playing the keyboard.

When Kevin was 14 he and five friends from church started a gospel group called Covenant Brothers.

They sang in many churches across the bay area. Kevin started singing R&B while in high school. Kevin's brother, Byron Williams sings gospel, plays the piano and is a producer. Kevin's personal information

When Kevin is not recording or producing tracks in the studio, he is spending all his extra time with his two young children, Jadon and Sareya. LABEL PCMM Records MANEGEMENT Wesbiz Entertainment
